Opening a Bank Account.

The advantages of opening and maintaining a bank account are many.

Money carried about on the person is liable to be lost or stolen—even the life of the person is endangered thereby. If kept in the house it is liable to be stolen by burglars or totally destroyed by fire.

But money deposited in a trustworthy bank is safe, and therefore relieves the owner from all anxiety.

OUR MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

The local political cauldron is now boiling at a very lively rate.

There are three candidates in the field for mayor, viz: Messrs. M. Fishel, the present efficient incumbent, Mr. John R. Martin, a prominent young business man, and Mr. Luen N. Green, a prominent young attorney.

The race promises to become exceedingly exciting, and lines are being drawn very taught, and the friends of each candidate are actively at work to land their favorite in the coveted chair.

The candidates for alderman-at-large are Mr. Will J. Edwards and Dr. Otto Grothe.

Mr. Edwards for the past two years has worn aldermanic honors having represented the first ward most acceptably. He is a prosperous stockman, exceedingly cautious and conservative, and popular.

Dr. Grothe, his opponent, is a prominent chemist. He made the race for this office two years ago and was counted out, carried his case to the courts where it is still resting. He is now running for a vindication.

Messrs. Geo. K. Robinson and H. C. Jones are candidates from the fourth ward. Both are well known business men, have a large following, and the contest in that ward, as usual, will be exciting.

Mr. A. G. Gates is a candidate for alderman for the first ward. Hon. J. M. Barco, for the second, and Messrs. E. P. Thagard and S. T. Sistrunk for third ward.

None of these gentlemen have opposition. The resignation of Mr. John R. Martin necessitates the electing of two alderman from the third ward.

The following are the young people who graced the occasion with their presence: Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Woodrow, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Birdsey, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Watson, Mrs. J. B. Hiers, of Fernandina, Misses Esther Weathers, Lulu Gary, Mary Reardon, Florrie Crook, Sara Harris, Lena Bullock, Marie, Bullock, Gertrude Perader, Florrie Condon, Hat-tye Porter, Sue Barco, Alice Reedy, Belle Strunk, and Messrs. Taking Time by the Forelock.

The State Teachers' association will hold its next annual meeting in this city and arrangements are being made by the Ocala Board of Trade, in conjunction with School Superintendent Carn and Prof. Josiah Varn, to make it one of the most pleasant of their annual gatherings. The board of trade held a special meeting some nights ago and appointed committees on reception, entertainment, etc. These committees have gone actively to work and are making all necessary arrangements for the meeting. The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has been secured for holding the sessions, and the armory for the meeting of committees and for school exhibits. It has been suggested that one of the features of the entertainment be a luncheon on the golf links, and another a ride to Silver Springs on the rock road in the Ocala House auto-trolley and a boat ride down that famous stream.
